2020-2021 Vouchers:

No mountains are offering vouchers for this season. A select few are honoring returned/upgraded vouchers from last year and still offering Council Appreciation days. See Below.

Return/Upgrades:

- Belleayre – No response to Council thus far.
- Bromley – No response to Council thus far.
- Killington / Pico - They have refunded the council for the vouchers returned last season, subject to the 15% return limit, BUT they will be weekday vouchers for this coming season and cannot be upgraded to weekend tickets. Pricing has yet to be announced. Parking reservations will be required. OR they are offering to carry the credit to the 2021 – 2022 season with no guaranty that they will be honored.
- Pocono Card – No Pocono Cards were allowed to be returned
- Stratton – No response to Council thus far.

OKEMO (according to website on 10/20/20)

- Connected with Epic Pass
- Opening day: 11/21/20 (weather permitting)
- Only season pass holders and Epic pass holders will have access from opening day thru 12/7/20
- Reservations required to access mountain
- Reservations can be made up to a week in advance
- Reservations will be day specific.
- Season pass holders and Epic pass holders can reserve in advance 7 days thru priority reservations for the core season, then there is a re-reserve/"rolling" option, meaning that after you access that 7 h day, reservations can be made again for another 7 days during the core season. Currently, there is no limit to the number of times you can re-reserve/roll
- View real-time availability on Epic's website
- Reservation window opens 11/6/20

STRATTON MOUNTAIN (according to representative on 10/20/20)
CHECK WEBSITE OR CONTACT STRATTON FOR CURRENT INFORMATION.
